

The Past 3 Years in Auburn, Part 2

Two weeks ago we looked at all homes sold in Auburn during the past 3 years. Today we look at them again, examining the number of sales per quarter and Days On Market. This includes REOs and Short Sales. This shows a decrease over the past three years in price. Below we see that the number of sales has not decreased much, but the DOM has varied widely, ending up about 15% less than where it started out. 11/05/2009.
